

7. Surface Water Diverter Compliance

The project proponent named in this application, the Castroville Community Services District, does not meet the definition of a surface water diverter. The District uses groundwater exclusively for its water supply.